Once again, plenty of wind at Risdon Brook this weekend for the Tasmanian IOM State Championship, with Saturday providing gale force winds, giving all sailors plenty of B rig and C rig sailing - Unfortunately it also meant gear breakage and failure for some. - Sunday brought lighter westerlies which made setting courses difficult, but plenty of good A rig sailing conditions - Michael Hickman and John Cole Cook fought it out at the pointy end all weekend, with Michael leading John before drops, but John taking it out after drops were applied - well done guys - Mat Gray had a good run today to take out the Bronze, with Lisa Blackwood taking 4th place from Cassie Midgley by only 1 point - It was good to see Lindsay Walker who travelled from the mainland to compete, and once again Alan Furmage, John Webberley, and their helpers did a fantastic job running the event - Well done to all competitors for their good sailing and sportsmanship
Regards Denis McLoughlin Scorer
